

COLUMBIA | LRC

Language Resource Center

Join our Indonesian language class!

Unlock the joy of learning while getting connected to real-life situations, from daily conversations to thoughtful discussions.

Start your journey to fluency today!

Information:

Christopher Kaiser: ck2831@columbia.edu
Stephane Charitos: sc758@columbia.edu
Putri Maharani : pm3385@columbia.edu

From Classroom to Culture

Unlock your Indonesian language proficiency with Columbia University, where your learning journey goes beyond textbooks. Students build fluency through interactive practice, real world role play, and guided feedback that tracks progress every step of the way. Alongside language skills, learners dive into Indonesia's living culture through traditions, media, and contemporary issues, gaining first-hand insights that makes learning not only efficient but also unforgettable.

Thematic Lesson Plans

Lessons revolve around real-life themes, allowing students to apply materials in interactive practice and develop Indonesian skills for both casual and formal contexts.

- Elementary Level: Focus on daily expressions, colloquialisms, sentence formation, and connectors to enable basic conversations and simple narrations.

- Intermediate Level: Emphasizes critical thinking and concise expression through cause-effect narrations, active-passive forms, causatives, imperatives, and subjunctives. Students learn to argue, propose solutions, support claims, and expand ideas meaningfully.

- ✓ No burdensome memorization or tedious translation activities.

- ✓ Focused on project-based activities.

- ✓ Each learning activity will be comprehensively monitored with targeted feedback.

- ✓ You will be facilitated to apply the language outside of regular class schedules.

Connect yourself with Indonesia.
Celebrate your success story with us!

